The OHSSAI shall be relieved of its obligations under this Agreement in the event that the holding of the Event by the OHSSAI, the committed venue availability, the performance by the OHSSAI of any of its material obligations under this Agreement and/or the attendance at the Event by the Partners and/or any other Partner and/or any visitors is impossible, illegal or substantially or materially interfered with, due to any cause or causes beyond the reasonable control of OHSSAI or the providers of the Venue including, without limitation, any of the following: act of God, governmental act, war, fire, flood, explosion, civil commotion, armed hostilities, act of terrorism, revolution, blockade, embargo, strike, lock-out, lock-down, pandemic, sit-in, industrial or trade dispute, adverse weather, disease, risk to public health, accident to or breakdown of plant or machinery, shortage of any material, labour, transport, electricity or other supply, regulatory intervention, general advice or recommendation of any government (including any government agency or department), regulatory authority or international agency against travel, events and/or public gatherings, or the Venue becomes unavailable and/or unfit for occupancy and/or use ("force majeure").

In the event of force majeure, OHSSAI may cancel, amend the date of the Event or change the Venue or otherwise alter the Event. Should the Event be cancelled, curtailed or adversely affected by any cause not within the reasonable control of the OHSSAI including but not limited to any of the force majeure events as identified in the preceding paragraph, OHSSAI shall be under no obligation to refund all or part of the sums paid by the Partner in respect of his participation in the Event. OHSSAI shall be under no liability to the Partner or any other person in respect of any actions, proceedings, claims, demands, losses (including consequential losses), costs or expenses whatsoever which may be brought against or suffered or incurred by the Partner as the result thereof.

- 5) The format of the Event
- 6) The content of the Event
- 7) The entrances and exits to and from the Event; and
- 8) Any and all other technical or administrative details in respect of the Event.

OHSSAI will use reasonable endeavors to notify the Partner of any changes or alterations to the Event as a whole which materially and detrimentally impact on the Partner's rights under this Agreement.

The Partner acknowledges and agrees that such changes and alterations may be required to be made by the OHSSAI to benefit and safeguard the value of the Event as a whole. In the unlikely event that any material changes or alterations are detrimental to the Partner, the Partner further acknowledges and agrees that OHSSAI may at its discretion and without obligation apply a pro rata reduction to the Fees or part of them to compensate the Partner for any material detriment so offered and that this shall be the Partner's sole remedy in this regard.

7. USE OF BRANDING

7.2 Subject to OHSSAI complying with the provisions of this Agreement, the Partner hereby grants OHSSAI a non-exclusive, non-transferable, royalty-free, revocable, worldwide license, to use the Partner Branding solely and strictly for the purpose of promoting, marketing and advertising the Event and the Partner's involvement in the Event.

8. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

These terms and conditions will be governed by the laws of India and disputes under or in connection with them shall be subject to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of Mumbai.

9. CONFIDENTIALITY

Neither party shall use, copy, adapt, alter, disclose or part with possession of any information or data of the other party which is disclosed or otherwise comes into its possession directly or indirectly as a result of this Agreement and which is of a confidential nature ("Confidential Information") except as strictly necessary to perform its obligations or exercise its rights under this Agreement PROVIDED THAT this provision shall not apply to Confidential Information:

In all cases each party shall inform the other party immediately upon becoming aware or suspecting that an unauthorized person has become aware of Confidential Information, or that an unauthorized disclosure of Confidential Information has been made.

Each party shall ensure that its personnel, sub-contractors and agents who have, or may have, access to the Confidential Information are bound by an undertaking in substantially the same terms as this Clause 9. The provisions of this Clause 9 shall continue in force notwithstanding termination or expiry of this Agreement.

10. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY AND INDEMNITY

This Clause 10 sets out the entire liability of OHSSAI (including any liability for the acts or omissions of its employees, agents and sub-contractors) to the Partner in respect of:

- i. Any breach of this Agreement;
- ii. Any use made by the Partner of the Partnership; and
- iii. Any representation, statement or tortious act or omission (including negligence) arising under or in connection with this Agreement.

Neither OHSSAI nor any of its respective agents shall be liable to the Partner under this Agreement in contract, tort (including negligence and breach of statutory duty) or otherwise for any loss of profits (whether direct or indirect), revenue, goods, use, anticipated savings, goodwill, reputation or business opportunity or for any indirect, incidental special or consequential loss arising under this Agreement (whether or not reasonably foreseeable and even if it had been advised of the other incurring the same).

OHSSAI's total liability in contract, tort (including negligence or breach of statutory duty) or otherwise arising in connection with this Agreement shall be limited to the total Fees paid by the Partner for the relevant Event in connection with which such liability arises.

All warranties, conditions and other terms implied by statute or common law are, to the fullest extent permitted by law, excluded from this Agreement.

Nothing in this Agreement purports to exclude or limit the Partner's liability for death or personal injury as a result of its negligence, fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation or any liability that cannot be excluded by law. The Partner shall on demand indemnify and keep indemnified OHSSAI against all costs, claims, demands, proceedings and losses whatsoever made against or incurred by OHSSAI, its employees, agents or contractors as a result of any breach of any term(s) of this Agreement by the Partner, its agents, contractors or employees.
